OUTING POLICIES

1. All advance deposits are non-refundable.
2. Payment can be made by Organizational or Personal Checks for any deposits received a minimum of 14 days prior to the event. For Credit or Debit card payments a 2.75% transaction fee will be applied to the payment.
3. Should it be necessary for you to cancel this function after this letter has been signed, the Club will be entitled to liquidated damages (agreed not to constitute a penalty) based on the following scale:

More than six months prior to the scheduled date: An amount equal to one-quarter of the estimated food, beverage, meeting room revenue or golf fees based on the guaranteed minimum estimate listed on the opposite side of this contract.

More than 90 days and less than six months prior to the scheduled date: An amount equal to one-half of the estimated food, beverage, meeting room revenue or golf fees based on the guaranteed minimum estimate listed on opposite side of this contract.

Within 90 days of arrival date:

An amount equal to seventy -five percent of the estimated food, beverage, meeting room revenue or golf fees based on the guaranteed minimum estimate listed on opposite side of this contract.

Within 72 hours of arrival date:

An amount equal to one hundred percent of the actual food, beverage, meeting room revenue or golf fees based on the final guarantee.

The Club shall use its best efforts to re-sell the golf and banquet space. In event that the Club resells some or all of the space, liquidated damages due the Club will be reduced proportionately.

4. Payment for liquidated damages due as a result of cancellation of this agreement shall be made at the time of cancellation. In the event that the Club recovers some of its revenue by re-selling the space, reimbursement shall be made to you after the date of the scheduled event.
5. Payment shall be made in advance of the function unless credit has been satisfactorily established and accepted in writing by the Club. In this event, a deposit will be required at the time of signing the contract and the balance of the account is due and payable thirty (30) days after the function. In the event proper credit cannot be established, total payment is due prior to the function.
6. The Club reserves the right to close the golf course(s) due to circumstances beyond it's control such as inclement weather. If the course is playable (in the sole opinion of the Club), and you decide to cancel the outing, the outing will be billed per the guaranteed number of participants given. If the course is deemed unplayable (in the sole opinion of the Club), the outing must choose a rain date (within the same calendar year and mutually agreeable to the Club and the outing) or the outing will be billed per the guaranteed number of participants given.
7. In arranging for private functions, the final attendance (at or above minimum guarantee) must be received, in writing, by the Catering office no later than 12:00 p.m. three working days prior to the commencement of the function. This number will be considered a guarantee, not subject to reduction, and charges will be made accordingly. The Club cannot be responsible for service to more than 5% over the guarantee for groups of up to 200 persons. For groups over 200 persons, a maximum of 10 persons over the guarantee can be accommodated.
8. The event coordinator is responsible for communicating all rules and regulations to its players. The Club may refuse the privilege of play to those whose attire or conduct fall outside of the rules and regulations.
9. It is recommended that you arrive at the Club at least thirty minutes before your assigned tee-off time. This will allow time for bag handling, registration, changing of shoes, etc., and will definitely help the smooth running of your day.
10. Players are expected to wear traditional golf attire on the golf course. Golf shoes, with soft spikes, are required. A collared and tucked in shirt is required. Jeans (including designer jeans) cargo pants and shorts, T-shirts, undershirts, cut-offs, gym shorts, tennis shorts and sweat suits are not permitted. Tennis players are expected to wear appropriate tennis attire. Tennis shoes and collared shirts are required. Players not properly attired will be refused play. It is the event coordinator's responsibility to make all his/her guests aware of the dress code. If outing participants are not in proper attire, the Golf Staff has the right to ask them to change and/or have them make a purchase in the Golf Shop.
11. Continuous play is required, please keep your stop at the Halfway House to a minimum. Interruption of play such as stopping for lunch is not allowed. It is golf etiquette to replace divots, repair ball marks on greens and to rake smooth all marks made in sand traps, and to remove used tees from the teeing grounds. Players are expected to observe proper conduct at all times.
12. Golf carts are rented for eighteen holes. Golf carts must not be driven on the tees, greens or green aprons and must not be parked within 30 feet of the greens. Cart directional signs must be followed at all times, please use the cart paths where provided. Following the completion of play, carts must be returned promptly to the designated drop off area. Please report all damaged carts to the Golf Shop. It will be the outing's responsibility to assume any damage costs. A valid driver's license is required to operate a golf cart. A maximum of two bags per cart is allowed. These rules will be enforced and persistent violators will be asked to leave the course.

13. There is a Halfway House and water coolers available on the course. A beverage cart is also available upon request. Players and groups are not allowed to bring their own food, beverages or coolers. The Club reserves the right to confiscate such beverages and food that are brought in violation of this policy.
14. Marshals are on the course to help play run more smoothly. If a group fails to keep its place on the course by losing more than one clear hole to the group in front, the group following shall have the right to play through and should ask to do so. The marshalls can help this process. Marshalls are also used to monitor play. Players who blatantly or persistently violate the rules will be asked to leave the course.
15. Please discuss your outing arrangements with the Golf Shop to determine whether or not labor charges, equipment rental or special service charges will apply. The Club reserves the right to charge a service fee for the setup of areas with extraordinary requirements.
16. Tax exempt organization: ___Yes ___No This organization's tax number is evidenced by attached copy. In the event that the State Controller determines that this function does not qualify for the exemption, I/we (the Client) accept personal liability for these taxes.
17. Performance of this agreement is contingent upon the ability of the Club to complete same and is subject to acts of God, labor disputes, strikes or picketing, accidents, government (federal, state or local) requisitions, restrictions upon travel, transportation, food, beverage or supplies. The expense of items supplied by the outside vendors, whether arranged by The Club or the Client, will be the sole responsibility of the Client. This includes but is not limited to tents, rental furniture, flowers, musicians, audiovisual equipment, service ware and customized menus. The Club will take every step possible to minimize these costs on behalf of the Client.
18. The Club will not assume responsibility for damage or loss of any merchandise or articles left in the Club or on the Golf Course prior to, during, or following the function. Moreover, the Club shall not be responsible for any items left behind and not claimed within 30 days and which are disposed of by the Club. Any freight or shipping charges incurred as a result of materials, i.e., literature, audiovisual and video equipment, books, etc., being shipped to the Club remain the sole responsibility of the Client.
19. Should security services be deemed necessary either by the Club or the Client, arrangements may be made with the Club at an additional charge. Additional security services provided by the Client must be approved in writing by the Club.
20. If this agreement is not signed and received by the Club by the date listed on the opposite side of this contract, the Club is released from any and all obligations under this agreement.
21. Any variation of other changes to this agreement must be made in writing and must be signed by both the Client and the Club.
22. The undersigned, acting as an officer, director or agent of the company/organization listed on the opposite side of this contract, represents that he/she has full authority to act on behalf of said company/organization in this matter.
